CITY SCHOOL BOARD. - The Board was called to order a few minutes after eight o'clock, last night, present : E. Snowden, jr., esq , chairman, Messrs, Addison, Burke, Hopkins Kemper, in the new use to which it has been put. Neale, Wheat, Whittington, and Witmer, and the Superintendent of Schools, who was elected

The minutes of the two last regular and two subsequent called meetings were read and approved.

Mr. Hopkins, from the Committee on School Houses and Furniture, reported the renting to the Young Men's Christian Association, for Sunday School purposes, of the school house on Queen street, for $15 until January 1st, unless possession be required earlier by that committee; also, that Washington School House had been repaired; also, that the committee had settled in part for the work already done on the Peabody building; also that the contingent fund was exhausted; whereupon, on mofor that fund.

He, also, reported that there had been but a single bidder for the alterations on the Peabody building, and that his bid was considered on motion of Mr. Wheat, the report was recommitted, with instructions to omit all that the committee did not consider necessary at this time, and to get it done at the lowest price possible, and the sum of one thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be occessary, was appropriated to pay for it.

The Superintendent, from the same committee, reported that he had contracted with Mr. George K. Witmer, agent for the Novelty School Furniture Co., for furniture for three rooms, to be ready by September 1st, and, on his motion, the chairman was authorized to exceed $500.

On motion of Mr. Wheat, the Committee on School Houses and Furniture was directed to with all sorts of provisious, including a full asforty tons with the privilege of fifty, on the | tresh fish and clams. most advantageous terms.

On his further motion, the clerk was author-Board, and pay the same over to the Trea- tain contemplated improvements.

The Board then, at 9 p. m., adjourned.

SUDDEN DEATH.-Mr. William F. Henderson, son of the late John T. Henderson, died very suddenly early this morning at his late residence corner of King and Alfred streets. He was unwell yesterday and took a dose of the District of Columbia. blue mass, but in the evening had improved so much that he went to Washington, returning on the miduight train. On his arrival home he complained of a pain in his side, a not unusual thing for him, and had a mustard plaster | ning by about one hundred yards. applied, and went to sleep soon atterwards, but never waked up again. FIRE DEPARTMENT. - A called meeting of | Sold by the Alexandria Fire Department was held last evening in the hall of the Hydraulion Fire Company. Present: B. Barton, President, in the chair: Fire Wardens, James Rector Smoot, G. E. French, S. A. Green, and J. P. Coleman, and Presidents J. B. Johnson, H. Latham, J. M. Steuart, D. A. Windsor, and Chief Engineer E. S. Leadbeater.

Mr. Leadbeater was elected Secretary. The President stated that the meeting was called to consider the resolutions adopted by the Hydraulion Company, at a meeting held on the 9th of June, relative to an order issued by the Board of Fire Wardens to the drivers of the steam fire engines; also, in regard to the necessity of more frequent meetings of the de-

Suit for Divorce. - lo Washington, yesterday, Mr. A K Browne filed the petition for divorce of John Joseph McGuigan from his wife, Angenetta McGuigan, whom he married as Angenetta Nichols, in Alexandria, in December, 1869. McGuigan, it appears, is a sailor on the United States steamer Fortune, recently arrived at the navy-yard, and, having been gone a year and a half, found a rather bilious state of matrimonial affairs on his return. She refused to live with him in 1872, as he supposes, from her intimacy with one Geo. Brown, of Alexandria.

CAMP MEETING. - The camp meeting in progress near Thornton, under the auspices of the M. E. Church, will, it is thought, be numerously attended to-morrow. A train will leave here at half past eight o'clock in the morning from the · Fairlax street depot, for the accommodation of those who may wish to attend.
